About the Program:

Now that I'm in college, what will I do with my life?

Vocational passion awaits all of us, and the sooner we learn how to do more of what we love, the sooner we will find new happiness and meaning in our lives.

This program has been designed especially for college students, parents, and those just getting ready to enter college. This program will teach you strategies for discovering and living a passionate life doing the work you love .

Craig Nathanson will share life lessons all students should know by the time they graduate from college.
